

NATIONAL FEDERATION of TEMPLE SISTERHOODS

BAZAARS AND BAZAARS

Everybody knows what a Bazaar is, something new. The one which Sisterhood of Temple Beth El, Providence, R. I., gave on Wednesday evening Dec. 1, and on the afternoon and evening of Dec. 2nd., combined business with entertainment. All the booths were decorated so as to suggest Mother Goose characters. Mrs. Caesar Misch, president of the Sisterhood, who was Mother Goose, wrote parodies on the famous children's verses for each booth. The next profit of the Bazaar was $2200. With an additional $1000 raised last spring, the Sisterhood will make improvements on the temple organ and lighting system, pay this year's salary increase of the choir and contribute $1000 towards the Temple's debt. All the Committee chairmen and members cooperated in making the Bazaar the success that it was.

"SANDWICH COMMITTEE" OF RALEIGH, (N. C.) SOCIETY.

A "Baby Bazaar," which was not quite so elaborate as the enterprise held in Providence, turned a substantial sum of money into the treasury of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Or, Raleigh, N. C. The Sandwich Committee is a continual source of revenue for the Sisterhood. More than $1000. has been earned by this Committee.

Personal Aid for Jewish Sufferers

Not content merely to render material aid to their unfortunate co-religionists in this country, or to contribute to the general relief of suffering Jews abroad, a number of Sisterhoods have reached out to give personal support to some among their destitute brethren across the seas. A notable instance is that of the Woman's Auxiliary of Congregation Beth Israel, Hartford, Conn. At its meeting Dec. 7, the Auxiliary voted to adopt two Jewish orphans in Europe.

A NEW KIND OF JEW

It will surprise anybody who has ever enjoyed the Irish wit and humor that is the inheritance of Mr. James T. Keena of this city to learn that his son, Mr. Leo Keena is a Jew. We know it was a surprise to Keena, Sr. We heard him say so; and we might say that anybody else who would like to hear him say so will find it worth while. We have reason to believe that it will be a surprise to Keena, Jr. Neither of them has ever suspected it. But they are, right in the middle of a great Jewish conspiracy for world domination that Mr. Henry Ford discovers every week in the columns of the Dearborn Independent. The Semitic role that Editor Ford assigns to Keena, Jr., is this:

"Thanks to the Jewish influence at Washington, Leo Keena, a Jew, has replaced Mr. Rankin as American consul-general at Warsaw. Keena says he is ready to vise 1,000 passports a day if necessary. His predecessor apparently did not vise Jewish pass-

Sisterhood Growth Noted.

Sisterhoods everywhere are experiencing a growth fully commensurate with size of their congregations and that of their communities. This may be due to the continually improving organization and machinery of the membership committees. Temple Emanu-El Guild, of San Francisco, Calif., stands out among the organizations prominent for their rapid growth. Its membership has increased from 88 to 430. Euclid Ave. Temple Sisterhood, of Cleveland, Ohio, reports 60 new members this season. Scholarship for Hebrew Union College

The Sisterhood of Park Ave. Temple, Bridgeport, Conn., has donated $500, and the Ladies Auxiliary of Temple Israel, New York City, $10 for the Hebrew Union College Scholarships.

Statistics on Pittsburg's Unassigned

That the Unassigned Pew System, Congregation of Pittsburg, is meeting with success, attested by Dr. Samuel Goldenson, it's Rabbi, in an address before the brotherhood of the Baltimore, (Md.) Hebrew Congregation. Dr. Goldenson's statistics made known the fact that since the adoption of the new system a few months ago, his congregation has increased from 789 members and seat holders, to 1038 members. The annual budget, before the system went into effect, was $40,688.70. It is now $66,756. Attendance at services has increased 60 per cent.

Generous Gift by Detroit Man

A generous gift by Mr. Ben Tannenholz of Detroit, Mich., has benefitted the Hebrew Union College and the Synagog Pension Fund, which is being raised by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations to pension rabbis and their dependents. The College and the Fund each received $1000. Mr. Tannenholz's donation brought Detroit within a short distance of its campaign quota of $8850 for the Union.

ports rapidly enough to suit Mr. Warburg.

Editor Ford apparently has not yet heard that Mr. Leo Keena is a fellow townsman of his who has for ten years served with distinction with the consular department in the Argentine, Chile, Italy, Switzerland and Washington. His present appointment is amply warranted by his exceptional record.

Editor Ford apparently has not yet heard also that Mr. Keena came of South Irish ancestor. If Mr. Keena is a Jew, then by the same kind of genealogy, Mr. Ford himself is a Jew Cork. But this conclusion, as Mr. Euclid would say, is absurd.

What becomes of the great Jewish conspiracy when it its discoverer can't tell a Jew from an Irishman? Every time we read his paper we think how much more useful Mr. Ford would be if he followed his original resolution, and left history, particularly contemporary history, severely alone.—Detroit Saturday Night.

A thousand authors worked during nearly two thousand years to produce a mighty work — one unique in the entire history of literature.

A scholar of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries toiled for forty years to give this work to the English-speaking world. The result is

THE TALMUD IN ENGLISH

Original Text Translated, Formulated and Edited

By MICHAEL L. RODKINSON

TO WHICH IS ADDED

THE HISTORY OF THE TALMUD

THE TALMUD has been in Jewish households for centuries "their lecture room, their library, their newspaper, their studio, their one-in-all." And yet the work has hitherto been difficult for even Hebrew scholars to read because the original text is unpunctuated, and consists of Hebrew and Aramaic consonants with not a vowel in the entire work. This English edition, though preserving intact the legends, laws, commandments, prayers and discussions of the original version, presents them coherently. It keeps close to the original text while using forceful English. Repetitions and arguments unessential to the point at issue have been omitted. Rashi's Commentary is also translated.

Jewish Monitor:

Enclosed find $50.00 for which send me the 10-volume Babylonian Edition of THE TALMUD IN ENGLISH, including the History of the Talmud.

Name.....

Address.....

The HISTORY of the TALMUD, included in this edition, is a complete work to itself. It is a narrative of the Talmud's unique production, and the many persecutions it received until recently, including its burnings at the stake. It will delight every student of history.

A full history of the Talmud has never before been published in any European language.
